

K-Love radio station provides the Eugene/Springfield Area with the only contemporary music of any kind that does not have hateful, sexual, or offensive language. My family listens to it. My friends listen to it. Changing the availability of this type of station would be de-moralizing to say the least.